Mission of the Melanoma World Society (MWS)

The following missions will guide the activities of the Melanoma World Society (MWS):

Improve Medical Education

MWS will host the World Congress of Melanoma every 4 years, following the tradition since 1985. MWS will care for grants in order to make attendance of physicians from developing countries possible. MWS will organize the World Meeting of Melanoma/Skin Cancer Centers yearly in between the World Congress of Melanoma. MWS will support educational meetings in countries with few experience in melanoma diagnosis and treatment.

Improve Guideline Development

MWS intends to unify diagnostic and therapeutic strategies in melanoma worldwide. MWS will establish a MELANO-MA KNOWLEDGE DATABASE (MKD), which contains all relevant articles for evidence based medicine in melanoma, and additionally evidence tables of these articles. MKD will be accessible for all national guideline groups. MWS will organize international expert meetings in order to develop recommendations for diagnosis and treatment of melanoma in the rapidly changing landscape.

Improve Patient's Access to New Treatments

MWS intends to provide melanoma patients worldwide access to new and more efficacious treatments. MWS will address governments in order to achieve a more rapid reimbursement of new treatments. MWS will address pharmaceutical companies in order to achieve access to new treatment modalities in countries, where the high prices cannot be reimbursed.

Improve Clinical Research in Melanoma

MWS will coordinate clinical research activities in melanoma internationally. MWS will perform international clinical trials in indications, which are not investigated by the pharmaceutical industries. MWS will support international expert meetings in order to coordinate clinical research.

Grupo Brasileiro de Melanoma (GBM)

The Second International Educational Symposium of the Melanoma World Society (MWS), Latin America Skin Cancer Forum 2018 is organized in close partnership with the Grupo Brasileiro de Melanoma (GBM).

The Brazilian Melanoma Group, established 20 years ago, is committed to improve knowledge of melanoma in Brazil targeting to assist, promote, support, encourage and develop scientific, technological, cultural, educational and social actions in melanoma awareness. To fulfill its main objective, GBM conducts courses, trainings, symposiums and multidisciplinary conferences aimed at improving the specialty and diffusion of knowledge about melanoma. GBM currently has more than 2,000 members within Brazil, made up of specialists, who debate about advances in the diagnosis and treatment of melanoma in our country including a Melanoma Informative Bulletin with 18,000 recipients 4 times a year.

For the years 2018 and 2019, the GBM has planned an important scientific agenda for its associates and experts with an interest in melanoma. There will be 14 local symposiums in strategic cities throughout Brazil, 5 regional symposiums (North, Northeast, South, Midwest and Southeast), as well as 9 scientific meetings in the city of São Paulo! The GBM Board is establishing partnerships with international institutions, such as MWS, to further increase scientific support for melanoma in Latin America. It is a great pleasure to have a partnership among GBM and MWS in order to work together to run a major scientific event in Melanoma in Rio de Janeiro, August 2018.

Welcome Message

Dear colleagues and friends,

We have the great pleasure to invite you to join us for the Second International Educational Symposium of the Melanoma World Society (MWS), Latin America Skin Cancer Forum 2018, which will be held August 3–4 in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

The Melanoma World Society (MWS) is the successor organization to the WHO Melanoma Group. The latter established the World Congress of Melanoma in the years 1985–2005, conducted trials and other projects with melanoma patients. The WHO melanoma group was disbanded in 2005, as WHO did no longer financially support such expert groups. MWS was initiated at the 8th World Congress of Melanoma 2013 in Hamburg, founded in June 2014 in Munich, and registered in January 2016.

The First International Educational Symposium of the Melanoma World Society (MWS) in Cape Town in March 2017 was a great success. Almost 250 participants from 11 different countries attended a highly informative meeting program presented by an outstanding faculty. The participants and pharmaceutical industry offered very positive feedback with excellent ratings for the quality of lectures and speakers and the scientific content of the presentations.

International and national key opinion leaders on skin cancer will be invited to the second MWS meeting in Rio de Janeiro to give an overview throughout specified presentations, to present latest clinical trial results, and to discuss on exciting new drugs, technologies and diagnostic tools with the audience.

We look forward to welcoming you in Rio de Janeiro in August 2018!

Best regards,

Carlos Barcaui, MD

Claus Garbe, MD

Axel Hauschild, MD

Alberto Wainstein, MD
